

What Is Energy Efficiency?

Energy efficiency means using less electricity or natural gas to power homes, apartments, and other buildings. Energy efficiency improvements help people save money and help protect the environment, too!

Are You Eligible?

Eligible participant must:

- Be a former foster youth between the ages of 18 and 24 or part of an independent living program.
- Have a valid Social Security number.
- Commit to completing the program.

Ready To Get Started?

For questions and more information, contact:

Wendy Angel

P: 562-413-5608

E: wangel@emeraldcities.org

Fernanda Craig

P: 323-265-8106

E: FCraig@isd.lacounty.gov

Energy Efficiency Industry Reference Data: 2019 U.S. Energy and Employment Report, National Association of State Energy Officials.

Power Your Future With Green Path Careers

Did you know that energy efficiency is one of the fastest-growing career fields in the country? Millions of Americans work in energy efficiency with more jobs being added each year. Employers here in Southern California are actively seeking qualified, experienced workers to fill these jobs.

Green Path Careers is a free-to-participate program that can help you gain the skills, certification, and experience you need to start your career in energy efficiency. Participation benefits may include:

- A Green Path Careers Participant Kit with tools and materials to welcome you to the program.
- Personal enrichment training to help you learn how to set career goals, understand budgeting and personal finances, and utilize soft skills needed for the worksite.
- Technical training and education to prepare for certification through the Building Performance Institute, a respected organization that sets the standard for professionals in the energy efficiency industry.
- Paid work experience with local companies.
- Help in developing your resume, applying for jobs, coaching for interviews and more to help you successfully identify an energy efficiency career!

Start Your Path Today

Sign up for Green Path Careers

Personal Enrichment Training

Energy Efficiency Skills Certification

Paid Work Experience

Energy Efficiency Career

Green Path Careers is offered through the Southern California Regional Energy Network (SoCalREN), led by the Los Angeles County Office of Energy and Environment and in partnership with a group of local government and community organizations dedicated to building and supporting the next generation of Southern California's energy efficiency workforce.

Southern California
REGIONAL ENERGY NETWORK

SoCalREN 11/17/20